Doctoral Hooding Ceremony Ticketing Protocols

Due to the capacity of the auditorium and expected size of the graduating class, the Doctoral Hooding Ceremony will be a ticketed event. Each student can invite up to 10 guests. The University wants to make sure that every guest has a safe and enjoyable visit. To ensure that this goal is met, we have outlined a list of rules and protocols below.

If you have any questions, please contact commence@uncg.edu.

Collecting Your Tickets

Tickets will be sent to the graduating student’s UNCG email address a week before the ceremony.

Children Policy

Children, age 3 years and older, must have a ticket in order to be admitted. Please note, no strollers are allowed in the UNCG Auditorium.

Faculty and Staff

Due to the capacity of the auditorium, this ceremony will be a ticketed event. Hooding faculty will not be required to have a ticket, but all other faculty and staff must reserve their tickets in advance and will be seated in a predetermined faculty and staff section of the auditorium.

To reserve your faculty or staff tickets, please contact commence@uncg.edu.
